Hakkām-i-Haram as-Sufi : Meera is a pious Muslim girl who lives with her Muslim fundamentalist father. Meera had always believed that the Devil will never enter her family. She is always seen praying and fasting. One day, she learns from her friend that the Devil has entered her house. Meera has no knowledge about the Islamic creed. After learning the real meaning of the Koran, she thinks about leaving her father's house. Her friend advises her that she must remain in the house. So, Meera takes up the challenge to fight against the Devil. She becomes the strong pillar of Islam in her father's house. Her father's house is now full of the Devil's influence. The Devil is determined to possess Meera. So, he casts a spell on her and tries to separate her from her father. Will Meera fight against the Devil?
